

Virtual Classroom Package Terms and Conditions

Thank you for considering the Active Parenting Virtual Classroom Package. The Virtual Classroom Package includes Virtual Teaching Rights, a Leader's Guide, Parent Guides, and the program videos (available through our Online Video Library)—everything you need to offer parenting classes online to virtually anywhere! Once you purchase a Virtual Classroom Package we must have your agreement to the terms and conditions of use listed below prior to sending the access instructions, including your unique URL and Password.

TERMS and CONDITIONS OF USE:

- Active Parenting videos are copyrighted, and may not be streamed without written permission. Copying or duplication of videos and guides is strictly prohibited.
- Provider agrees that Active Parenting Publishers shall at all times retain ownership and copyright of all videos, Leader's Guides, slides, Parent Guides and other copyrighted materials.
- Initial virtual streaming option is for a one-year period. Provider can extend virtual teaching permission and Online Video Library subscription, for each additional year a cost of $99 plus the purchase of a minimum of 10 Parent Guides.
- Provider agrees to purchase and provide a Parent Guide (physical or digital) to each parent participating in a virtual class.
- Provider agrees to conduct the course according to the fidelity of the program as described in the Leader's Guide.
- Provider agrees not to record for public distribution or replay at a later date.
- Provider agrees to grant access only to individual parents who are clients within their local service area.
- Provider agrees that allowing "blanket" internet access to the virtual class via website advertising is not allowed.
- Provider agrees to allow Active Parenting to audit their class for compliance.
- Provider agrees that violation of terms will result in the cancellation of the subscription/permission, and may result in cease & desist notification as well as other penalties
