

Family relationships are complicated, especially in separated families, and exposure to unrelenting parental conflict can cause emotional trauma in children. So it is vital that coparents learn to communicate cooperatively and shield children from their conflict.

Cooperative Coparenting (COCO) is based on the original Cooperative Parenting and Divorce program, which has been well-received by judges and juvenile courts throughout the nation since its introduction in 1998.

Newly Revised Program!

COOPERATIVE COPARENTING
through Separation or Divorce™

Susan Boyan, LMFT
Ann Marie Termini, LPC

Cooperative Coparenting (COCO) is an innovative video and discussion program that helps coparents put children first. Focusing on education and conflict prevention, it provides promising solutions for families in separation situations.

Cooperative Coparenting

Helps parents shield their children from parental conflict. Parents will learn to defuse conflict and take responsibility for their contribution to establishing a positive, long-term, cooperative relationship with the other parent. This revised program now comes with videos embedded in a convenient PowerPoint presentation.

CoCo...a great program that just got even better

"This classic guide to successful co-parenting is full of nuts-and-bolts ways to create a positive co-parenting relationship for the benefit of the children. It is comprehensive and invaluable for both parents and practitioners."

~ Siri Gottlieb, JD, LMSW, Ann Arbor, MI

"...using the CoCo guide helped me tremendously. I learned how to see my role as a parent and how to pause to step back and adjust, not only my behaviors but my reactions for the best outcome for my children."

~ Chris, Coparent, Atlanta, GA

"This is one of the most rewarding programs that I teach. It is a phenomenal privilege to work with parents experiencing great depths of pain and watch them evolve into empathetic individuals who elevate their children's well-being. Parents leave the sessions feeling supported, heard, but most importantly...validated!"

~ Pamela Ingram Wood,
Life Coach/Parenting Specialist/Family Mediator
