FROM THE PRESIDENT Hope, Forward Movement, and Resilience

When we selected the cover photo for this catalog we wanted one that emphasized the central theme of our newest program, Cooperative Coparenting through Separation or Divorce (CoCo). That theme is to help parents focus on the needs of their child through this traumatic life event instead of their own hostility towards the child's other parent. We also wanted a picture that speaks to all parents challenged with balancing their children's needs and their own. We thought that this one did both with a spirit of hope, forward movement, and resilience.

All Active Parenting programs teach the hows and whys of building cooperative relationships for the sake of our children, ourselves, and our world. We teach problem solving skills as well as discipline skills, encouragement as well as respectful confrontation, and how to instill the traits of character that underlie the best of human behavior: courage, responsibility, mutual respect, empathy, and more.

We are excited to introduce CoCo into the Active Parenting family. This long-awaited revision of the best-selling Cooperative Parenting and Divorce program contains everything that made the first edition so successful, plus much we learned from the feedback of many of the hundreds of thousands of parents and leaders who put it into action for two decades.

As always, thank you for the work you do for parents and children. It matters more than you will ever know.

Michael H. Poplin Michael H. Popkin, PH.D. Founder and President

ABOUT Active Parenting Publishers

Led by founder and president Michael H. Popkin, Ph.D., Active Parenting Publishers has provided research-based education programs to helping professionals since 1983. Emphasizing nonviolent discipline, mutual respect, and open communication, the Active Parenting approach has benefited millions of families since 1983.

AGES 0-5

Parenting education for the early years

A child's first few years are so important! Help parents make the most of them with Active Parenting: First Five Years (FFY). Written by parenting expert Dr. Michael Popkin with contributions from educators at Oklahoma State University Cooperative Extension, this course is a revision of our popular 1,2,3,4 Parents! program.

It's what they want to know

FFY catches parents when they need you the most—from birth to age 5. With this program, you will demonstrate how to nurture young children with a "just right" combination of freedom and nonviolent discipline. The course covers important topics including discipline, temperament, mindfulness, brain development, self-calming, special needs, and school readiness. See our website for complete details about this innovative new program.

EVIDENCE-BASED

Active Parenting programs have evidence showing positive changes in both parents and children. See our website for all evidence and measurement tools for this program, including:

- Preliminary results from the recent field study
- Listing in the Penn State Clearinghouse of Military Family Readiness
- NREPP review
- Free survey tools for your own parenting classes

Check our webpage for details, including sample video scenes: www.activeparenting.com/FFY

The program kit's flexible format makes it possible for you to offer:

a comprehensive, 4-session course offering an in-depth exploration of the concepts and additional topics

a 3-session class for core Active Parenting skills

a 1-session unit on parent engagement skills to build school success

FOR PARENTS + TEENS

A unique program bringing parents and teens together—at last

Parents and teens are often at odds, but it doesn't have to be that way. When they learn together, they will have a common language and skills for a smoother ride.

That's where Active Parenting of Teens: Families in Action comes in. This program gives families valuable tools for the challenging teen years: communication, mutual respect, risk-prevention, and more. See our website for complete details about this comprehensive program.

Check our webpage for details, including sample video scenes: www.activeparenting.com/FIA

It's three programs in one!

With this kit, we've built in the flexibility you need to reach as many people as possible. Your program kit can be used in 3 ways: #1 A class for parents: Active Parenting of Teens #2 A class for teens: Teens in Action #3 A class for parents and their teens together: Families in Action!

Research proves it's effective

Active Parenting programs have evidence showing positive changes in both parents and children. See our website for all evidence and tools for this program, including research in the Journal of Drug Education.

Coparenting

Shield kids from parental conflict

Cooperative Coparenting through Separation or Divorce (CoCo) helps parents guide their children through the process of recovery from separation or divorce while establishing a positive, long-term relationship with the child's other parent. This long-awaited revision includes all of the key concepts of the original classic, new topics such as handling financial issues, and all new videos embedded in an engaging PowerPoint presentation, organized in a way that makes it easy to teach—and to learn!

Ideal for court-ordered divorce seminars

Over a stimulating eight sessions of 2-2^{1/2} hours each, this course educates parents about the impact of conflict on their child and the issues children face with separation or divorce. It also teaches parents the practical skills they need to manage anger, increase impulse control, resolve conflict, navigate peaceful negotiations, and communicate

"This is one of the most rewarding programs that I teach. It is a phenomenal privilege to work with parents experiencing great depths of pain and watch them evolve into empathetic individuals who elevate their children's well-being above any disagreements they may have. Parents leave the sessions feeling supported, heard, but most importantly...validated!"

~ Pamela Ingram Wood

Life Coach/Parenting Specialist/Family Mediator

"This classic guide to successful coparenting is full of nuts-and-bolts ways to create a positive coparenting relationship for the benefit of the children. It is comprehensive and invaluable, for both parents and practitioners."

~ Siri Gottlieb, JD, LMSW, Ann Arbor, MI

"... using the CoCo guide helped me tremendously. I learned how to see my role as a parent and how to pause to step back and adjust, not only my behaviors, but my reactions for the best outcome for my children."

Taming the Spirited Child: Strategies for Parenting Challenging Children without Breaking Their Spirits

TAMING SPIRITED CHILD

by Michael H. Popkin, Ph.D. Some kids seem to be born more adventurous, persistent, and sensitive than others. In his insightful book for parents, Active Parenting author Michael Popkin shows how to understand them while celebrating the gift of spirit. With humor, emotion and practical wisdom, Dr. Popkin teaches parents:

- To recognize the characteristics of a spirited child
- The positive potential these children possess
- · How taming is as much about building a relationship as setting limits
- The eight critical planks of a "taming corral"
- The dynamics of power and how to handle anger
- · Practical, nonviolent discipline for spirited kids 266 pp.

Self-Calming Cards by Elizabeth Crary & Mits Katayama What can kids do when they're angry, anxious or frustrated? How about the "mad" dance? Or stringing beads? Or kneading bread? These are just a few of the dozens of selfcalming strategies explained in this card deck. Each of the 24 illustrated cards describes how you can soothe yourself with a different method—physical, auditory/verbal, visual, creative, self-nurturer and humor. Another 16 cards provide step-by-step instructions for games and activities to use with the calming cards. Written in both English and Spanish, these cards and the accompanying instruction sheet explain how parents and teachers can introduce the cards and the concept of self-calming. The materials also discuss how adults can model the use of such self-soothing techniques as taking a warm bath, making a joke to defuse a situation or singing a silly song. Each calming method includes suggested activities for a range of ages, from toddler to adult. Useful for ages 2-10 years. 36 cards.

Self-study courses to improve your facilitation skills

With the Active Parenting Online Leader Training Workshops (OLTW), you will sharpen your skills and expand your knowledge base. The OLTWs are 100% selfstudy and are conducted via the Internet.

What will I learn?

The OLTW is offered in two parts: Part #1 provides an introduction to parenting education. This segment, called "How to Lead a Great Parenting Group," explains 12 key skills for leading a successful group, picking a good curriculum, and being an effective problem-solver. It takes three hours to complete (3 clock hours).

Part #2 is your Leader Training Workshop in a specific Active Parenting program. This course explores the curriculum in detail. Using the Leader's Guide, you will learn how to present the concepts, guide parent discussions, and run the activities for that specific course. It takes about 11-30 hours to complete this segment, including reading assignments.

Part #2 is available for two of our most popular programs: Active Parenting: First Five Years or Active Parenting 4th Ed. (for ages 5 to 12).

What do I need for this class?

You will need:

- · A computer, tablet, etc., with sound
- Internet connection
- Time to complete the class within 60 days
- · A desire to learn valuable new skills
- · That's it!

When does my class start?

After registering for the OLTW, you will receive login information via email within two business days. Books will arrive within two weeks.

What do I get?

LEADER: Skilled facilitator who guides a group of parents through an Active Parenting program.

Live leader training from the comfort of your own computer

Active Parenting's Leader Training Workshops are available as convenient webinars, turning your home or office into a classroom! Each webinar LTW is led by an experienced Active Parenting Trainer, and includes video and discussion. You'll be able to ask questions and hold live chats for an interactive experience.

How does it work?

To take a Leader Training Webinar, you need a computer with a speaker and a good Internet connection. Register for your webinar in advance and we'll ship the materials along with login info. Most webinars begin at 9am U.S. Central Time and last 7 hours. There will be breaks throughout the day.
